

CONTESTS LOOM IN ALL COUNTY RACES

Assemblyman Bruce Allen easily won the Republican nomination for reelection in the voting Tuesday, but will have to face Michael Di Leonardo, the Democratic party winner in the general election. There are 7548 republican and 4816 democratic votes polled by Parker Hathaway and Spencer Williams to be split up in the next vote so the race should be close.

Biggest upset in the election Tuesday was in the race for sheriff when Melvin Hawley and William Young pulled away from the incumbent, Howard Hornbuckle. Hawley of Los Altos and a deputy district attorney, was 5000 votes ahead of Young who had 16175 votes cast for Hickey, Cuffaro and Ganshirt to be split between the two candidates in the run-off.

In the supervisorial race in the fourth district Joe McKinnon, incumbent will face Joe Santora in the run-off, the latter having barely nosed out Ralph Salmon by an 8,252 count to 7,779, while in the first supervisorial district the incumbent, Arthur Brown will face J. Hardin Rush, there being 741 votes polled by Anthony Leimas to be split.

The voting in the north part of the county was strong for Hawley. Bruce Allen, in spite of attacks from special interests, polled a strong vote and is deemed likely to gain strength by the time of the next election.

In other contests Congressman Charles Gubser scored 44,830 republican and 20,945 democrats votes as compared with 4,535 republican and 31,151 democratic votes for Paul Birmingham who is the challenger for the general election.

The Powers and Silliman skirmish for lieutenant governor faded as Powers, the incumbent romped in easily with the Republican nomination but will have to run it off in the general with Y Roybal who won the democratic nomination. Even Saratoga's Bob Kirkwood will have to run it off for the office of State Controller with George Collins who took democratic honors. Stuart McClure nosed out George Reilly for the republican nomination for Board of Equalization but Reilly leaned heavily on the democratic vote.

Voting in Campbell was along the county wide pattern. At the high school precinct, which is usually the barometer for general voting, Allen took both the party counts, 32 and 19 against 0 and 15 for DiLeonardo, 13-9 for Hathaway and 10-5 for Williams. Gubser took both tickets 52 and 31 against Birmingham's 5 and 19. Young was high for sheriff here with 43 to 36 for Hawley and 24 for Hornbuckle while McKinnon polled 47 votes to 34 for Santora and 31 for Salmon.

PLANNERS FAVOR BUNGALOW TYPE STRUCTURES ON LARGE LOT AREA

Because no plat plans had been submitted or need expressed by the applicants, the action on the proposed rezoning of acreage at Hamilton avenue and the San Jose-Los Gatos road for the regional shopping center was postponed last Thursday night until July 1. Word was sent to the planners that sickness had prevented appearance at the meeting of Don Stone, spokesman for the applicants.

Planning Consultant Nestor Barrett said aerial photographs of the location along with a petition signed by 94 persons in the immediate area, favorable to the application, had been filed.

There was a warm discussion over proposed rezoning of 80 x 200 lots on Dover Way in the subdivision of Ralph Weaver from R-2 to R-3-S, involving height limits. Planner seemingly favor a low type building so that because of the large sized lots it could cover the area and lend itself to landscaping, in contrast with a structure of several stories which would leave some undeveloped space and allow occupants in upper floors to look over neighbors homes. They indicated to Weaver that architectural control is needed in view of protests from neighbors to a tall building.

Barrett said that under present

R-2 zoning he could build two stories or up to a 35 foot height which statement prompted Weaver to jump to his feet and ask that his application be withdrawn.

Chairman Hollis Logue reminded Weaver that this had all been discussed with him in previous meeting. The property, Weaver said once been sold by him for $3500 and had been purchased back for $6000 so that it could be properly improved, it now having an old red barn on it which does not lend itself to improving. While Weaver indicated he will seek withdrawal of his application, the planners continued the hearing until next Thursday.

Planners also postponed until July 1 the public hearing on the application of Eugene C. Kuehnis to rezone 31 lots in unit 3 of the subdivision off Hamilton avenue from single family to duplex dwellings.

CAMPBELL GIRL AT SAFETY MEET

The importance of driver education in California's educational system was stressed during the first annual conference of the California Driven Education association which recently concluded its first annual conference on the California State Polytechnic college campus.

Among those attending the meeting held May 29-30 were: Wilma Thompson of 758 Pollard Road.

Other officers are: vice-president, Dr. Richard Kaywood of the University of California at Santa Barbara; secretary, Miss Robertine Pace of Oakland; and treasurer, Martin Jack of Torrance.

Among the recommendations made by the association were:

1. While the over-all teaching load should conform to those of other teachers, a driver training instructor is most effective and more important, less likely to become involved in accidents, when not more than one-half of the teachers daily assignment is in driver education.

2. Favored each school or school district working toward ownership of a driver training car or cars.

3. Did not consider the general secondary credential to be adequate preparation for a driver education or driver training teacher.

4. A minimum of 20 hours of driver education and six hours of driver training is recommended for California public school adult education beginning driver instruction students.

5. A committee with President Lyons as chairman be established to direct to the proper source a request that colleges and universities be enabled to offer safety majors and minors as a basis for a general secondary credential.

$20,521 FROM GAS TAX TO CAMPBELL FOR ROAD WORK

A new record total of $23,454.81465 of state gasoline tax revenues, surpassing last year's total by more than one million dollars, has been apportioned to 314 cities in California for street work during the current fiscal year, State Director of Public Works Frank B. Durkee announced today.

The apportionment, equivalent to five-eighths of a cent per gallon out of the gasoline taxes paid by highway users, is made by the State Division of Highways in accordance with law on a population basis.

The total apportionment to Campbell for this fiscal year ending June 30, 1954, was $20,521.28. State law requires the cities to expend at least 60% of this gas tax apportionment for construction on streets included in the major street system as designated by the city council and approved by the State Department of Public Works. Up to 40% of it may be spent for maintenance of any city streets.

City street projects financed with these gas tax funds require State approval. In practice, Durkee said, officials of the Division of Highways and of the various cities cooperate closely in an effort to obtain the maximum benefit from the available funds in terms of service to traffic.

At Camden and Winchester

City Studies Plan To Shift Road Terminal

Relocation of the Camden avenue intersection with the Santa Clara-Los Gatos road, was proposed to the city council Monday evening in a letter from the County engineer's office, the new site to intersect at a ninety degree angle south of the present intersection.

The proposal calls for a minimum expenditure by the city in obtaining rights of way and for surfacing of Camden avenue east of the Southern Pacific Railway, the county proposing to widen the highway, known in Campbell as Winchester Road.

The new intersection would eliminate a dangerous approach at the turn of Winchester Avenue, and would channelize traffic with a left turn lane for south bound traffic entering Camden avenue. It would improve visibility and would provide adequate walkways for school children, the letter states.

The existing intersection with Camden avenue is termed hazardous in the letter for both vehicular and pedestrian traffic. Mark Thomas city engineer estimated the cost to the city would be less than $1000 as it is at the extreme southerly limits of the city.

While the council looked favorably on the proposal, it was referred to the planning commission for preliminary study.

The council adopted a resolution of intention to annex lands of Lewis Smith on Central avenue to David Avenue setting July 6 as the date of hearing.

They processed the application of Van Bokkelen-Cole Company for the proposed annexation of a sixty acre tract between Latimer and Campbell avenues and west of the San Tomas Aquina creek, directing its filing with the boundaries commission and the city planning commission. The land includes the Amato and the Belle-citi properties.

A curb and gutter set up will be required if an offstreet parking area is set up at the new Medical Center building at the north end along Los Gatos Creek, according to a directive from the council.

Other action by the council Monday included granting of a permit to sell fireworks to the Campbell Hardware Co., but denying the application to the Kuehnis Cherry stand at Hamilton and the San Jose-Los Gatos Road because of being in a residential zone and because of operating under a variance permit only for the cherry season; Told fire chief Jack Scott to use his own judgment as to the kind of lettering on the new fire truck which will be ready for delivery here early next month; approved making of a new map by the city engineer to include new annexations; authorized Police Chief Robert Locke to submit name of a qualified officer to do relief work in the vacation period; instructed the city attorney to advise applicants for a taxicab permit their application does not comply with the city ordinance; referred the model bicycle ordinances to the ordinance committee for study; heard letter of appreciation from the police chief of Santa Clara for cooperation from the Campbell police department in apprehending three wanted criminals; and heard a report from the county tax collector that $10,473.58 net in personal properties tax monies was being turned over to the city.

There will be a choice of offered in menu, either swiss steak or veal cutlets, and a few tickets are still available this morning at a $1.25 per plate. The cafeteria is being decorated by the school's Art Commission and the meal will be served by the school's Social Affairs Commission. Entertainment will consist of community singing and discussions of spring sports in the high school program of today.

Campbell Man Is Certificated In Hunting Program

Vincent E. Diehl of 25L West Latimer street has been certified in the state's hunter safety program after having passed a written test by the National Rifle Association. He is eligible to instruct juniors for state hunting licenses. Persons under 16 must by law present a certificate of competence in handling firearms before receiving a hunting license.

The new intersection would eliminate a dangerous approach at the turn of Winchester Avenue, and would channelize traffic with a left turn lane for south bound traffic entering Camden avenue. It would improve visibility and would provide adequate walkways for school children, the letter states.

San Tomas Group Seeks Protection From Open Ditches

Efforts to have a fence put up along the San Tomas Irrigation canal has been launched by home owners seeking protection for their children and by San Tomas school authorities. Playing with improvised rafts, a five year old boy, Corwyn Johnson was saved from drowning Monday by his playmate Buddy Silva. Two years ago Buddy fell into the creek and was himself rescued.

Jack Fischer, principal of the San Tomas School, has warned children to stay away from the open canal. If no action is gotten from the County officials and the Valley Conservation District, the case will be taken up by the San Tomas Improvement Association, according to Mrs. Lawrence Silva of 728 Lovell Way, mother of Buddy Silva.

EDITORIAL

UNFENCED CREEKS AND ABANDONED WELLS

From time to time there are reports of children falling into creeks, old wells and newly formed ponds, often resulting in a drowning. This brings tragedy and sorrow to the family who themselves may have worked helplessly at the rescue.

A little over a year ago there was one of these tragedies at Palo Alto. Then there was the Kathy incident of the little girl who fell in the old abandoned well. When those things happen, like when fire ravages a town, the people become worked up and insist that something be done to prevent a recurrence.

It could have happened near Campbell on Monday. A five-year old boy, Corwyn Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson of 741 Lovell Avenue was unconscious when rescued from the San Tomas District irrigation ditch. A five-year-old playmate, Lawrence Silva pulled him out of the water into which he had fallen from a raft.

The ditch is unfenced. The neighborhood now is united in an effort to have county authorities take corrective steps. It is a small request to make, yet it involves the lives of children. This is not the first instance of near tragedy at the same spot. It calls for prompt action.

STICK TO IT, JOE

Joe Santora is a councilman at San Jose and a good one. He seems to be the only member who is against the mad rush to annex every bit of land they can, disturbing established trading zones and putting out all sorts of bait to make fringe area people think they are getting something good and for nothing.

Joe said at a council meeting Monday night that they should include about a million dollars in the budget if they are called on to provide all the services they are promising the outside areas. He is against strip annexations and says their future target might be to annex Saratoga. He is not popular with the other members of the council, but we think that he is a bit of alright. Lots of other people think so too, because he is right and he is fair-minded.

They are creeping all around us in Campbell with annexation strips. They are blowing hot breath down our backs. They are giving warm handshakes to our fringe area people and talking about a park and those sort of things which Mr. Big says will allow them to bask in the balmy sunshine when they become suburbanized. But Joe shakes his head and does some figuring. He knows full well what has happened to some of the other areas annexed by San Jose, then forgotten. Figures those actions are sort of false pretenses, he does, and shakes a warning finger that he wants no part of it. Joe is an honest man. We hope he holds on to this stand, for he is going to have lots of friends if he does.

FLAG DAY

The approach of Flag Day on June 14, causes us to wonder how long "Old Glory" will retain its present design. If either Alaska or Hawaii is admitted to the Union it will necessitate a rearrangement of the stars to accommodate the 49th, and the 50th also if both become states. Many new arrangements have been suggested. One is to have seven stars across and seven down if the number is 49. With 50 it would be more difficult to get a balanced design. It has also been proposed to put the stars in a circle which, it is said, would make it easier to adjust in cases of change. The original flag of the 13 states had the stars in a circle "symbolizing the perpetuity of the Union". Leave it to the experts to work out a design if, and when, the necessity arises. What interests us most is not what Our Flag looks like but what it stands for. Our task as individual Americans is to see that it always stands for the qualities and ideals which made America what it is.

SUMMER RECREATION

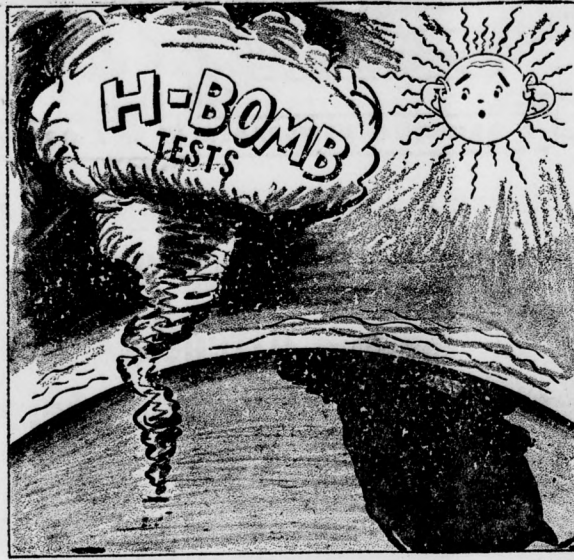

A wonderful recreation program has been set up by the Elementary school districts and the Campbell Union High School district with all facilities combined in a common project. The summer program at the elementary school playgrounds is to start on June 28 and continue for eight weeks.

It will all be under trained instructors and will include all kinds of playground activities and special events, most popular of which are music and swimming. The instructor guards are trained in the latest methods of lifesaving. The program offers opportunities for utilizing the facilities owned by the taxpayers. By such activities the youth in the community have means for being occupied and orderly. That is the answer to most teen age problems. It is one reason for Campbell having a fine scholastic and cultural reputation.

WANT ANOTHER BATHROOM?

Bathrooms and kitchens of a waterproof clay tile may soon be standard in even the lower-priced homes soon as the result of some research work at Rutgers college. Panels of clay tile can be installed in standard bathrooms in less than an hour; pressure sensitive adhesives will set it in place just by stripping off a paper backing from the individual tiles, then pressing them in place. Then grout is added, the stuff between tiles which makes the wall impervious to water. Newspapers have been using this method for the last several years in mounting zinc cuts to a base, doing away with hammering tiny nails through the metal to a wood base. Saves time and works better.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

"WITHIN THE CONTINENTAL LIMITS."

100 YEARS AGO THIS JUNE, A HALF-CENTURY AFTER THE GREAT LOUISIANA PURCHASE, A TRACT OF LAND WAS BOUGHT BY THE U.S. FROM MEXICO—CONTAINING 45,335 SQUARE MILES AND NOW MAKING UP PARTS OF ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO. THIS WAS CALLED THE GADSDEN PURCHASE, FOR THE SOUTH CAROLINIAN WHO WAS THEN MINISTER TO MEXICO.

THIS PURCHASE HELPED TO ROUND OUT THE BOUNDARIES OF THE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES AS THEY EXIST TODAY. The Campbell Gambol

NOTES ON THE CUFF—Kiwanis Bulletin comes out with announcement that tickets will be $125 each for the Campbell Union High School Spring Sport Banquet to night in the high school cafeteria and Bill Henley who got out the bulletin is busy explaining, it should have been $1.25 per plate . . . the program is sponsored by the high school student body, the high school dads and the Campbell Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary Clubs, with an outstanding speaker engaged from University of California.

LEAVE IT To the youngsters to make a fiesta sparkle, and they certainly did it Sunday at the Cambrian Park School where hundreds of people gathered to take in the parade, the folk dancing, pony rides and lots of other doings . . . there were space men, devils, clowns and dozens of other characters in the parade, but we got the biggest giggle out of timid little Rose Ann Cornish, who was taped up, blackened up about the eyes, apparently blood-smeared and in a terrible appearing condition and who when asked what she was portraying said, "guess I got beat up by one of the teachers" and Kenneth Leppert in an Uncle Sam costume whose head was encased in a world atlas, and said he represented the battered up world on Uncle Sam's shoulders . . . the six classes came out in a variety of folk dances, from the Minuet to Hawaiian lore . . . all the while the carnival was humming with activity . . . then on Saturday night the Campbell Kiwanis Club staged its Kiwanis Kapers before a faithful crowd at the high school, proceeds from which to go toward youth guidance projects.

WHAT IS A BOY—Asks the New Age magazine and answers thusly: A boy is truth with dirt on his face, wisdom with bubble gum in his hair, and hope with a frog in his pocket . . . a boy has the appetite of a horse, the digestive system of a sword swallower, the energy of a pocket-sized atom bomb, the curiosity of a cat, the lungs of a dictator, the imagination of a Paul Bunyan, the shyness of a violet, the audacity of a steel trap, and, when he makes something, has five thumbs on each hand . . . Nobody else can cram into one pocket a rusty knife, a half-eaten apple, three feet of string, an empty Bull Durham sack, two gum drops, six pennies, a slingshot, a chunk of unknown substance and a genuine super-sonic code ring with a secret compartment . . . A boy is a magic creature, you can lock him out of your workshop, but you can't lock him out of your heart . . . might as well give up for he is your captor, your jailer, your boss and your master; just a pint sized bundle of noise . . . but when you come home at night with only the shattered pieces of your home and dreams, he can mend them with just two words, "Hi, Dad!"

BEST SPORTS YEAR FOR CAMPBELL HIGH CLOSES WITH SECOND IN GOLF

Campbell high school completed its sports year last week. It was, according to Director of Athletics, George Miskulin, the "greatest school year sports-wise" in the secondary school's history. "After all", he went on, "our Bucs took SCVAL championships in Varsity Football, Basketball, Wrestling, and Singles Tennis. Also winning honors were Eric Protiva who won the SCVAL single tennis championship, the "C" and "JV" track teams who came out tops in their leagues, and the CUHS gold squad which won Medalist Honors on the links. Our "B" basketball players, swimmers, and "D" tracksters took close seconds. And we had more school spirit than ever!"

As the track team had done earlier in the season, Campbell High's golf squad barely lost the SCVAL title to James Lick's Comets on La Rinconada course last Thursday. The final tally was Lick 630 and Campbell 632 with the Bucs slamming out an amazing 299 to the Comets 310 in the final day of links play. Ray Kay of Campbell took medalist honors over the thirty six hole route with a 148 stroke total. Dick Jordan had a 155, Art Duffy a 160 and Gordon Peffley a 169. Mark Rasmussen of James Lick had the day's second lowest score, shooting a 149.

Phone Calls To Singapore Are Now Possible

A new 8,500 mile radio telephone channel—second largest in the Pacific—was placed in operation today linking by telephone for the first time, the United States with Singapore.

The announcement of the new telephone service was made jointly by Pacific Telephone, which operates the Pacific overseas switchboards in its main Oakland building, and the long lines department of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The transmitting station for Pacific Overseas telephone channels is located at Dixon in Solano County, the receiving station is on Point Reyes near Inverness, Marin County.

The direct telephone channel to Singapore in British Malaya brings to thirteen the number of countries and territories reached via Bell System radio telephone in the Pacific ocean area and the far East.

In addition to Singapore, calls may be placed to Honolulu, Guam, Okinawa, Japan, Korea, New Zealand, Australia, Formosa, Manila, Hong Kong, Shanghai and Indonesia.

The greatest traffic between Oakland and the Pacific area is during the evening hours because due to time zoning, those are the morning hours at the far-away points.

All together, one hundred and four countries and territories may be telephoned through Bell System radio telephone.

Campbell Scouts Canvass Area

In seeking to raise an additional $3500 towards the deficit of the Scout program budget this year, scouts of Campbell Boy Scout District conducted an extensive drive in Campbell and Moorpark areas Saturday, May 22, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 2 p. m.

Campaign leaders of the Moorpark area were informed of the increase in scouts with a rise from 757 to 996 scouts during the past year. Contributions from the Community Chest have dropped considerably during the past few years due to the lack of public support, according to Mark Judy, professional scouter serving the area.

In 1950, about $2300 was provided for seven scout units. In 1953 the number of units had risen to 33 and only $2000 was obtainable. Funds raised from Campbell district will help meet a $14,000 deficit of Santa Clara County Boy Scout Council's budget.

Among leaders of the campaign were Betty and Gregory Brucelato, Robert Sidsenall, William Wrigglesworth, William W. Owen, Edward Ervine, Emma C. Doolin, Rasmussen, Mrs. Charles A. Randall and Mrs. James Lopez.

Moorpark Dads Club, sponsors of Cub Packs 24 and 25, and of Boy Scout Troop 26 in the Moorpark district, have voted to purchase three $10.00 sustaining memberships to assist the scouts in the current campaign.

a Sunday School unit at the cost of $25,000.00. Plans for additional units, including a sanctuary will be filed together with the building permit.

End Of The Year Awards

THREE SENIORS TO BE PRESENTED SCHOLARSHIPS AT COMMENCEMENT

by Bob Olson

Three graduating seniors will be presented scholarships from three Bay Area institutions of higher learning at Campbell High School's graduation exercises, which will be held on Friday, June 18th, beginning at 2:30 P. M. on the football field. THE PRESS interviewed the three recipients this week and gained further insight into the talents as well as the aspirations of three young people who represent 1954 youth as its finest.

Awarded a tuition scholarship to the University of California at Santa Barbara, Dianne Bowman said, "Wonderful! Even more than I'd hoped for! This will be a great start toward my eventual goal!" Dianne plans to become a sixth grade elementary schoolteacher some four or five years hence.

"I realize that teaching is hard work," she admitted. "But I'm certain that I'll find real satisfaction in learning new things myself and then helping others to learn them. I'm anxious to learn the psychology of learning and to spend the rest of my life working with young people." Dianne is an enthusiastic member of the secondary school's "Teachers of Tomorrow" club and has already had a lot of experience in leadership activities. The high point of her life to date was attending Girls' State as the high school representative last year. She has also served as state secretary to the California Association of Student Councils, attending meetings in that capacity all over Northern California. During her high school career, Dianne has participated in girls' sports and has served as a commissioner of athletics.

Marlene Langen will receive the $300 alumni scholarship for entering students to the University of California at Berkeley. This reward is renewable yearly if Miss Langen maintains a "B" average in studies every school year. As a result of her contacts with the local high school faculty, Marlene is expected to be a high school English teacher. "Miss Gardner, Mrs. Seaton, Mrs. Reynolds, and Mr. Wallace have really inspired me," Marlene told us. "I love good literature and I am anxious to improve my creative writing abilities. I'm looking forward to helping other young people find in English all the joys I've found."

Marlene's pen has already proven financially rewarding as well as prolific. For two straight years her essays have been included in the NATIONAL ANTHOLOGY OF HIGH SCHOOL ESSAYS. She recently won two prizes of $25.00 bonds each for her original writings on the subjects, "Our Responsibilities Under the Bill of Rights", and "Our Inalienable Rights". Many Campbell students have been amused at parodies Marlene has written for presentation in Tuesday morning assemblies by student council groups.

Casey Clark, a serious graduating senior, has an underlying sense of humor which he often turns upon himself. He has definite ideas about the Alice Phelan Sullivan Scholarship awarded him for the University of Santa Clara saying: "Academic standards are high at Santa Clara and not being co-educational, it'll be one place with no girls around to distract me. I already know some of the Jesuit fathers who teach there, and I'm glad I'm going to a place where they mean business and where classes are small enough so that all the teachers can have a personal interest in you."

Young Clark will work towards a degree in engineering and business administration. He has no aspirations toward joining the Bronco basketball team in spite of his high school association with sports. "I learned a lot about getting along with other fellows while managing the Buc Football Team. It's been thrilling to see school spirit grow more and more powerful as I neared the end of my high school career. The Campbell coaches are really great; they're teachers as well as coaches."

Casey's interest is in mathematics. "So many things are fleeting and changeable, but figures have permanence." He graduates a real fan of the high school. "There are no barriers between students and teachers here either. I've learned from their lives as well as their instruction. All my teachers have taught me to think for myself and not just memorize something out of a book."

Sandra Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Ben Howard of 18 N. Milton Street, has been awarded the Campbell Grammar School Teachers Association Scholarship. Sandra is graduating from Campbell Union High School next week and plans to enter San Jose State College in the fall.
